HOLIDAY LIGHTS
In winter’s gentle hush of night,
The world leans in to every light—
A shimmer strung on evergreen,
A candle’s glow in brass and gleam.
They brighten hearts different ways,
Yet share the hope of brighter days—
For Christmas lights that softly shine,
For Hanukkah’s proud, steadfast line.

Each tiny spark, a whispered song,
Of faith that’s carried deep & strong;
Of miracles remembered still,
Of joy that warms the winter’s chill.
They glow for love & glow for peace,
For moments when our worries
cease;
For all we honor, all we share,
For His blessings everywhere.
