

A group of elderly people are gathered around a table, playing cards. The central figure is an elderly woman with short white hair and glasses, wearing a grey cardigan over a white top and a red scarf. She is smiling broadly. To her left, another elderly woman with white hair and glasses is looking down at the cards. To her right, an elderly man with grey hair is also smiling. In the foreground, the hands of other players are visible, holding cards. The background is slightly blurred, showing a bright, indoor setting.
